

Research Interests – Prof. Dr. Krystyna Radziszewska

Krystyna Radziszewska is Professor for German Studies at the University in Łódź. Professor Radziszewska is also a member of the Commission for the History of Germans in Poland. Her research focuses on regional issues, Polish-German relations, social, political, cultural and economic issues of German-speaking countries, history and culture of Łódź Germans. Furthermore, Professor Radziszewska's research interests include history and culture of Łódź Jews 1918-1950, literary Łódź until 1939, Łódź ghetto – its history, culture and literature, and the Jewish avantgarde in Łódź in the first half of the 20th century.